Community consultations to inform the NSW Regional Health Plan 2022-2032

Background

33 Creative have been engaged by NSW Health to support the development of the NSW Regional Health Plan, facilitating specific consultations with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

The consultation sessions are designed to hear from community members and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people working in the health sector, across a number of key areas to improve regional and rural health across NSW.

About 33 Creative

33 Creative is a First Nations owned and managed communications, events and media company. We are based in Sydney and have staff located in regional and rural areas. We work nationally and have more than 20 years' experience working with community.

Consultation sessions

The Consultation sessions are designed to hear from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people across regional, rural and remote areas to inform the new Regional health plan.

Consultation sessions will be held with people working in the health sector as well as community experiences as patients.

- Session 1 Wed 15 June 11.30am - 1.00pm Community members (and Elders)
- Session 2 Wed 15 June 11.30am - 1.00pm Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health workforce
- Session 3 Thurs 16 June 11.30am - 1.00pm Community, youth specific (25 years and under)
- Session 4 Thurs 16 June 11.30am - 1.00pm Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health workforce

Please send Expressions of interest to info@33creative.com.au, outlining:

- Name, age and location
- Current job title or role in community
- Identify if you would like to participate in a community session or a health sector session
- Preferred consultation time

Successful EOIs will be confirmed to reflect representation from different regions and backgrounds. Participants will receive a $100 voucher, as acknowledgement of their time and contribution.
